Coleção Luz Negra. A revelação do novo suspense.

O inesperado convite para a despedida de solteira de Clare, uma amiga de colégio de quem se distanciou na adolescência, deixa intrigada a jovem escritora de histórias de suspense Nora Shaw. Ao aceitar participar do encontro de fim de semana, numa casa de campo isolada, a retraída Nora é confrontada pelas recordações da época em que convivia com a exuberante Clare, a menina mais popular da escola, que a protegeu e apoiou durante o tempo em que estudaram juntas. No entanto, um episódio nebuloso afastou Nora de todos os colegas e amigos da adolescência, exceto Nina de Souza, outra convidada.

O cenário desolador onde se encontram participantes da festa sem alegria torna-se opressor a partir de diversos pequenos acontecimentos que incomodam a protagonista - talvez mais do que às outras personagens. Um desses choques é o anúncio de que Clare vai se casar com James, o primeiro namorado de Nora. Esta jamais esqueceu James, mesmo depois do rompimento, quando se mudou da cidade onde todos moravam.

Situações que permaneceram abafadas pela conveniência são reveladas a cada instante, na medida em que um crime for desvendado, colocando em dúvida qualquer certeza sobre decisões tomadas ou a fidelidade das amizades de infância. A sensação claustrofóbica experimentada pelos personagens também sufoca o leitor, que percebe, a cada página, o quanto a verdade se esconde sob aparência de cordialidade e gentileza. Os temores de cada convidado, suas frustrações e suas ligações uns com os outros são peças de um mosaico cuidadosamente montado por Ruth Ware, que cria uma atmosfera inquietante neste thriller que lhe rendeu comparações com os principais nomes do novo suspense feminino, como Paula Hawkins e Gillian Flynn, e conquistou a crítica especializada, além da lista dos mais vendidos dos Estados Unidos e da Inglaterra. O título será adaptado para o cinema por Reese Whitterspoon.
